ISNA Special Fundraising Offer for Islamic Schools

The Islamic Society of North America (ISNA) invites Islamic schools in the U.S. and Canada to raise funds for themselves by helping to sell subscriptions for its award-winning, nationally distributed Islamic Horizons bimonthly magazine.

This will be a fun way to sensitize the community and the students to Muslim media. The students will take pride in helping an award-winning quality publication.

Students can earn funds for their school with each subscription sold.

For details about how to participate,
go to the ISNA website:

HOW YOUR SCHOOL CAN PARTICIPATE IN THE ISLAMIC HORIZONS FUNDRAISING PROJECT

Your school and students can share in this project as a fundraising tool while introducing students, their families and other new readers to the valuable content of Islamic Horizons, a bi-monthly magazine which showcases ISNA's activities, along with covering achievements and news about the North American Muslim community. The magazine also features topics devoted to the contributions of outstanding individuals and organizations, politics and social issues, international affairs, family life and culture, and book and film reviews.

Follow these easy steps:

1. Students get subscriptions completed on the Islamic Horizons subscription form.
2. Teachers/school administrators collect the completed subscription forms and send them to ISNA HQ via:
 - a. Mail: ISNA Subscription Dept, PO Box 38, Plainfield, IN 46168
 - b. Scan/email: sasbury@isna.net
3. ISNA will mail out Islamic Horizons to the new subscribers, with an invoice.
4. ISNA will process payments to the schools as subscription fees are collected by ISNA. The student's school will earn $2 per paid new subscription.
