

America's premier Muslim Magazine !!!

Islamic Horizons Magazine

The Islamic Horizons Magazine is the flagship publication of the Islamic Society of North America (ISNA), the national umbrella organization of the Muslim community and professional societies. The Islamic Horizons entered the 29th year of its publication in 1999, and distributes over 50,000 copies of each issue by mail.

Each issue is published six times a year, and presents the Muslim perspective on news and events important to American Muslims as well as international concerns. It's readers include a large spectrum of the Muslim American population, from students to professionals. The Islamic Horizons is also mailed to over 10,000 libraries and academic institutions across North America and overseas countries.

I*slamic Horizons* has carved a niche for itself as the representative publication of the American Muslim community. Islamic Horizons publishes special issues on Ramadan ('Id al Fitr), and the hajj ('Id al Adha), and the occasion of the Annual Convention, the most popular community events in North America.
